“ Pam was one of the sweetest loving caring ladies I have ever known . Her love of family and her faith always at the top of her list of things that were important to her. As her care giver we became very close friends and I treasure that friendship and the memories we shared. I know God has her in the palm of his hand.

I just heard about Pam's death. She was a sweet loving person. I'm obviously taken aback and saddened just finding out in mid July that she has passed.

May the choir of angels, Come to greet you Pam.
May they speed you to paradise.

Pam lived above me in our building. I'll always remember her smile and cheerfulness. She was always smiling! We miss you, Pam. May you rest in peace with our Heavenly Father.
