

Pamela Ann Vraspir

August 2, 1952 - February 22, 2026

Pamela Ann Vraspir (nee Warne)

age 73, passed away February 22nd, after complications from COVID. She was surrounded by family. Born August 2, 1952, in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, to Philip and Laura Warne, Pam carried with her throughout her life the warmth and spirit of her Midwestern roots.

Pam was a vibrant, attractive, fun-loving woman whose warmth and energy drew people in. She had a lively spirit and an easy laugh, and she carried herself with a natural grace and style that made her presence unforgettable. She believed life was meant to be enjoyed - and she embraced it fully.

An artist at heart, Pam expressed herself through watercolor painting and photography. She had a discerning eye for light, color, and fleeting moments, capturing the world as she saw it - tender, textured, and full of meaning. Her appreciation for beauty extended to her love of antique furniture and delicate glassware; she delighted in surrounding herself with pieces that held history and character. Her home reflected her - artistic, welcoming, and filled with charm.

Pam also had a special place in her heart for animals. Her compassion for them was a quiet but constant thread in her life.

She is survived by her husband, Greg; her daughters, Natalie and Laura; her cherished grandchildren, Arden, Lochlan, and Asher; and her sisters, Valerie, Susan, and Wendy. She loved her family deeply and in her own way carried them always in her heart.

Pam will be remembered for her creativity, her sparkle, her independent spirit, and the beauty she brought into the lives of those who knew her. Though her passing leaves a profound void, the art she created and the love she carried will continue to endure.

She will be dearly missed and forever remembered.

Pam, you rest in peace. You were the prettiest and most kind person in our family. There were times I leaned on you for comfort and you delivered. In the big scheme of things, we're all not that far behind you. Love, Debbie Conway Montoya

Having just lost my youngest brother, Joe, i share in your sorrow. What a great neighborhood we had in the north end, and great families. Peace to you all. Joan Miller Arnott
