

Pat Rogers

August 17, 1931 - November 8, 2022

Born Aug. 17, 1931, in Rochester, MN, passed peacefully with her family at her side on Nov. 8, 2022. Pat is survived by her husband of 67 years, Lloyd; children, Kurt (Valerie), Mark (Dawn) and Susan (Carl) Adam; grandchildren, Rebecca Rogers, Karissa (Spencer) Mitchell, Rick (Grace) Rogers, Madeline (Marcus) Showalter, Alex Ambuhl, Molly Adam and Amy Rogers; and brother, George (Linda) Pool. Preceded in death by her parents, Emma and Ira Pool; sisters, Jacqueline Welch and Ileana Machyowsky; and granddaughter, Olivia Ambuhl.

Pat met the love of her life, Lloyd, at a ski club social and they married on June 11, 1955. In 1957 they built a new house in Roseville and have lived there ever since. Pat graduated from St. Paul Central High School and graduated in Education from the University of Minnesota in 1953, making lifelong friends in the Delta Delta Delta sorority. Pat started teaching at Eastern Heights Elementary in St. Paul and concluded her teaching career at Valentine Hills Elementary. Pat was an artist and loved painting nature landscapes, birds, and the Florida scenery. Most of all, Pat loved and cherished her family. She enjoyed time with family and friends on vacations, the Blackwater lake cabin, and winters in Florida.
