

Patricia LS Brugger

October 31, 1946 - November 30, 2024

Patricia LS Brugger peacefully passed away in her sleep as she had hoped her time would be like for many years... as Frank Sinatra might say, she did it her way.

With a firm belief in Jesus, Pat lived in Bloomington, MN for many years. A passion for traveling lead her to visit multiple countries. She pursued life and was an avid lover of the orchestra, theater, baseball, art, random road trips, and camping to name a few interests. Her grandson, who she absolutely adored, allowed her to release her own passion for Legos.

Pat is survived by her daughter (who thought her mom walked on water too) - Inez, grandson-Armando (Leo), and many lifelong friends.

While trying to live life to the fullest she would say, "Life is a banquet and most poor suckers are starving to death!" ~Auntie Mame. She would highly encourage anyone reading this to go eat. Onward!
