

Patricia "Patty" Jean Dainsberg

March 19, 2016

Dainsberg, Patricia "Patty" Jean 85, passed away beautifully at midnight on March 19, 2016 with daughter Cindy Rae and angelic nurses Senayit and Ruby by her side. Per her wishes to "not make a fuss", there will be no formal service. Private interment will be with husband of 42 years, Stanley Edward at Fort Snelling. Patty is survived by brother-in-law Jack Dainsberg, nieces and nephews including special namesake Patty Montenegro of Anderson, CA. Lifetime friends (family really) include Sandy and Jerry Doran, Mound High School friends and St. Alban's Mill Condo neighbors. Buddies Grace & Gloria shared a meal on Wednesday making Mom smile for days. "I may not have had many friends but they were all really good ones." She loved Jackson Hole (1965 on), Al and Alma's 4th of July birthday rides, Madden's Resort, Dayton's, Nordstrom's, lunching, favorite puppy Molly Brown, and surprising friends with thoughtful gifts. Cindy thanks amazing friends for being there for her then and now. In lieu of flowers, memorials and the like, please just make someone giggle like Mom would.
