“ There's really nothing I can say to make you all feel better as losing your mom is devastating and your life will never be the same. However, I know she would want you all to go on living your lives to the fullest. I miss my mom everyday, as I am sure you will too. I am so sorry for your loss, especially with Mother's Day coming up. It will be a difficult day. Stay strong. My prayers are with you all.

“ I didn't know Pat all that well, having only become her neighbor in 2002, but I did meet her a few times and instantly knew she was a very good person. In reading other memories people have written, I feel now like I missed out on knowing someone very special. To her family, you are in my thoughts and prayers for the loss of your wonderful mother.

“ Dearest Pat & Family,

We are fortunate to have known you all, and John.

Our lifestyle was such that we (kids, dogs, and all) visited our parents, who both lived in Gilman, WI every weekend, so we missed sharing some good times. But, we never missed the times we did share, and the always-pleasant times with you all. When you lost John, and Pat was now a widowed neighbor, she continued to be so active, and enjoyed life to the fullest. She loved you all and was so proud: with reason. She also took pride in keeping her home and yard looking beautiful, and ran the mower, rider, snowblower, etc. to keep it so. She was thoughtful in every way possible, even dropping off past month's issue of "People" magazine. She often stopped by to chat. When the day came that she decided to change to assisted living, it left a huge void. There were no more smiling greetings, friendly waves, ever-present chuckles, things we had learned to take for granted: but nothing could erase the memories. We did see her in her new "digs" and she was happy, which made us glad. She ran her race well, starting with a sprint and completing a marathon. Cancer may have taken her life, but it did not defeat her. She thanks you all for making her life unforgettable. God grant her the peace she so richly deserves.

We love you.

What wonderful thoughts of my mom; it brings me happiness to read your memories of her. Thank you so much for being her dear neighbors for so many years; she cared for you very much. Her passing has left a great void in my life - I miss my mom, I miss my friend. Thank you, again, for your kind and comforting words.

Joni and Bruce you were so dear to my Mom. I would visit and she would tell me about the conversations she had with both of you in the back yard while she mowed her lawn. The memories you share are heart warming. While our mom is at peace, we miss her dearly. Thank you for your kind words, they are greatly appreciated.

*“ Pat was a wonderful person, and the best neighbor a person could have. I will always remember the smile and the kind eyes. Pat was a very hard worker and loved to plant and take care of her lawn and flowers. In my eyes she was one of the kindests person you could ever meet; feel blessed to have have known her. To all the family i wish you strength in this saddened time.
God bless all

Mike, she thought the world of you. Your kindness to our mom was amazing and we are forever grateful. When I would come and visit, she would say, "do you know what Mike did for me today..." and would mention the numerous things you helped her with. Your entire family was very important to my mom. When you all were gone at the lake, she was always looking out for your place making sure everything was ok. :) When she moved, she missed you all as well. Again, you were all so important to my mom. Thanks for being such great friends.
