“ Raymond, Thank you for letting me know of Pat's death. Many dear memories have flooded my thoughts. Early ones from the 1950's when we lived together in the Sunset District of San Francisco, and took a trip in my 50' Ford to Southern California, where we escaped the Disney Land heat by taking the "Rocket Ride to the Moon" twice since it was the only air conditioned ride. In later years when I visited in Arlington, and we took the train to New York City and shopped at a store I was certain only she could find, and then on to the Museum of Modern Art. A perfect day in the city, Pat always an exciting person to be with, and enjoy everything we did. I remember one of her last trips to San Francisco, she had come with a friend and they stayed at the Cliff Hotel, and I was happy that she loved the meal at the Mozart Cafe which was a favorite of Jean and mine's. And I cherish the lovely note she sent after I wrote that Jean and I had married, and spent a week in Carmel. She said that you had honeymooned there fifty years ago. Dear Raymond, you took such good care of Pat, you have my heartfelt condolences on your great loss. She is in my prayers. Love, Anne Politeo
