“ I’m truly sadden to hear the news of Patti passing. I had the pleasure of being patti’s hair dresser for multiple years... Patti helped me threw some of the toughest Times in my young adult life and she always had a answer for my troubles. I enjoyed her story’s of past years over seas undercover and finding her true love. Many times I was left speechless with her story’s she would tell me... I would give Patti a hug every time she came to see me, I’m humbled to know the last time I saw Patti we parted ways with a huge hug... thanks Patti for entering mylife and truly caring. Rest In Peace my friend... love Jesse James

“ To the entire Healy family but especially for brother John, whom we knew well: our condolences on your loss of this lovely, dynamic, funny, and caring woman. I shared years of working at the Agency with Pat--never together in the same assignment but linked by interests both professional and personal. I was able to see Fran a great deal while Pat was away and felt so close to her--a special blessing for me. John was always helpful and entertaining--and a good cook! Pat and I once spent three days touring Lichtenstein--challenging in a way because one could see the whole country in about three hours! We had lots of laughs not to mention good food and wine. You all were blessed to have Pat with you for so long--she adored her family.

“ *To the family of Patty Weber--
I can only imagine the sadness in losing your dear Patty. She called her family 'the Clan' and loved them all (from 'little Patty' to her elderly mom whom she and her brother cared for) dearly. I know some of this because I served as Patty's deputy for a number of years. We were very close, shared a lot. I considered her a mentor, friend and close colleague. Post retirement, we kept up with news and continued to share our thoughts, and our laughter. I am grateful for the time I spent with her and will remember her always. Patty was also a true leader, and one who stood up for her subordinates-- another most admirable quality of hers, among many. I will miss her joy and her wisdom (and even those couple of times during the years when she'd call me 'Roseman' and I knew I was in trouble!). My thoughts are with the Healy-Weber clan.*

“ *To the Healey Family:
My heart so ached last Monday night! Patti was not only a dear friend, but a confidant so many times. She always had an answer (most of the time - right on) and, of course, an action plan to get it taken care of - now!
My prayers for the Family on your loss and a gentle hug to all. May Patti Rest In Peace.*
