“RIP dear friend and former roommate !! I met Pat in 1969 and that friendship endured through moves and separations over the years. She was the best Italian cook I have every had the privilege of dining with. The apt. was a beehive of activity when she was making her secret sauce--with intermittent phone calls to her Mom for last minute advice. We spent a fun five weeks together with our friends Bernadette Z and Gerrie Lemay traveling across the European continent. We could have written a book about that and many other adventures. With Pat, something quirky was just around the corner and that's what made her inimitable!! She suffered many losses in life and in the end her eyesight as well. I know she is making up for all that now having as much fun in heaven as a girl possibly can!!!
