“ Dear Nan, Joey, and Family, Sorry to hear about Pat. He was often in my thoughts and I remember the visit I had with him the last time I was in MN. I always marveled at his positive attitude and his sense of humor. This will be so difficult but no doubt, you will never forget him. I wish all of you peace during this very sad time. Love, Roberta Mohlin GarfieldMurray KY

“ Nan & Joey - I will always cherish the wonderful memories I have shared with you and Pat. So many great times up north ... trivial pursuit where Pat always won - Pat's obvious interest in other people and his will to keep going and doing no matter what... he will be missed and remembered... may God bless and keep both of you safe in the days ahead - and you know you can call on me if either of you need me. love you ...
