Warner, Patty J. (King)

Age 87 of Robbinsdale passed away July 20, 2018. She was born in Menomonie Wisconsin and moved to Minneapolis after high school. Preceded in death by parents Nilas and Vera (Myers) King, daughters Candace LeCuyer and Denise Eastman.

Patty was a hard working woman who didn't retire until the age of 80. She worked for Lakeland Envelope, Dinner Bell and later, Hennepin Home Health.

She'll be missed for her love of family, jokes, laughter, shopping, dining out and remembered for always saying, 'should I put a pot on', she loved her coffee and earned the nickname, Patty Pot-On. She had a notorious sweet tooth and she loved her bread. She'd have you drive 10 extra miles to get the 'good' bread. Her honesty and fairness were paramount of her many noble traits. She didn't care what your race, religion, or preferences were, she always saw the best in people, you were always welcomed in her home.
