“ Paul and I grew up together from about 6 years old through high school. We both received Guitars for Christmas the same year. We learned how to play our instruments listening to Santana and Black Sabbath. Along with our friend Ric [drummer] we had a band and called it CLOUD. Our first gig was at our elementary school. We were very young and figured we had the world by the tail. Rest in Peace my friend. Gary.

“ We were part of one another's lives for almost 28 years - forever friends, and co-parents to a wonderful daughter. I am so sad that you are gone. You will be missed forever!

With Love,
Samantha
