“ Always had his hard candy, donuts, or licorice. When he gave some to friends they would take a bite, Rick would say tastes like more? He always had a witty sense of humor. Carol was the love of his life. He was proud of his kids. He loved all his pups. He was the greatest and best friend to my Dad. He was always there for our family. Love and miss him very much. Prayers and love to Ricks family during this time 💜
