“ So very sad to hear of Paul's passing. I've known him since 1984 when he bought the apartment building I live in. What a wonderful landlord he was! So respectful, thoughtful, patient, and understanding. He made it easy for me to be a good tenant. Over the years we talked about issues with my apartment. The one that really stands out for me was dealing with the grapevine ivy that had migrated from a neighbor's yard to my side of the building and was growing up toward the roof. Paul really liked it, thought that it added color and distinction to the building. My experience was that it also brought a lot of bugs with it, birds, and grew over the windows. After the ivy had run rampant for several years, had reached the roof and begun to wreak havoc with the roof and structure, Paul gave up on it and cleared it off completely. After that, he was quite happy to cut it back when it returned. He respected my desire to keep my kitchen when he really wanted to update it. And when I wanted new carpet and repainting after 18 years, he was happy to arrange it.

My sincere condolences to his family and friends. He'll be greatly missed.
