“ Paul was the most kind, loving, joyful person that I have ever met in my life. Our relationship was full of love, happiness, humor, compassion, encouragement, support, and trust. We had everything anyone could have ever hoped for in a relationship. We were absolutely meant to be together. We were a great team. It is hard to find what we had. We could practically read each others minds. I know he could read mine! He would always call me out if I was upset. I would try to hide it, but he always knew how I felt, and he could always cheer me up. I miss him so much, and I will love him forever. He was my true companion.

“ Don't think of him as gone away-his journey's just begunlife holds so many facets-this earth is only one.Just think of him as restingfrom the sorrows and the tearsin a place of warmth and comfortwhere there are no days and years.Think how he must be wishing that he could know today how nothing but our sadnesscan really pass away.And think of him as livingin the hearts of those he touched...for nothing loved is ever lost-and he was loved so much.My heart goes out to Paul's family and friends. He will be truly missed.

“ From the moment I met Paul, I knew I was going to try to make him mine. And, when I got him, I was wondering how in the world could somebody as sweet and special and handsome as him be single. I felt like I had found a buried treasure. I couldn't believe it. I knew he was "the one" for me. I felt so lucky to have found him. He was the best thing that ever happened to me. He made me a better person, and we had so many special times together. I never got along with anyone as good as I got along with him. I miss him so much. I have this emptiness inside without him here. I just am trying to fill it up with our memories together. I love you baby!

“ To all of Paul's family, Thank you for the wonderful gift you gave us all in your son, Paul. He was an instant fit into our family and we will always love him. I hope that when he see's God, he will have him kiss my daughter's broken heart and send her peace. We have many great memories of time spent with him and Andrea, but still, far too few. I was looking forward to having him as a son-in-law. He brought joy and humor with him every time he came to visit. I love the love he gave to my daughter and the sparkle he put in her eyes. “ Paul was a very close friend of mine when I lived in Minnesota. We grew up together as little kids playing BAA baseball and hockey together. We lost touch for a while but got back in contact about 2 years ago. He was a great friend and a his sense of humor was something that most people envied. He had that smile that could light up a room. I will miss him and my thoughts and prayers go out to Patti, Bill and Aimee. God Bless.

“Dear Andrea and all of Paul's family and friends, I was so very saddened to hear about the death of Paul...even though I didn't know him very well, I feel a loss in my life because I always enjoyed when Andrea and Paul came over to my mom and Dan's house and I was able to spend time with them...I sensed from the moment I met Paul that he was a very special man and that Andrea had found "one of the good ones." He was just one of those people who seemed to carry a light inside of him that made others want to be around him. I think what I will always remember most about him is his smile and laugh and funny sense of humor. I am so happy that at the last minute, I decided to go with my mom and Dan to Paul and Andrea's apartment to watch the superbowl this year...I had a really good time that night. My deepest sympathy is with all of you.

“ Paul was the very first friend that I remember having in my life. Playing baseball, hockey, riding our bikes through various neighborhoods or swimming at my house with him; his smile, his laugh and amazing outgoing personality are just a few of things that I will remember forever. I still remember Paul as a young boy, probably 9 or 10 when Aimee and I were around 13 years old--just the sweetest little guy with the face of an angel. “ I never had the opportunity to meet Paul but he sounds like he was a wonderful person. I am however blessed to know Paul's family- Patti, Cindy, Monique and Scott. Knowing how kind they have been to my family during my husband's illness explains how Paul became such an incredible man. I know there are no words that can take away the pain you feel. If I have learned anything, hang on to your memories and don't look ahead. Just get through one day at a time and let people help you when they ask. Since I heard this news..all that runs through my head is why do these horrific tragedies happen to nice families. Life sure isn't fair, losing a loved one unexpectedly or slowly is devastating. You learn that life will never be "normal" again, you just learn to live with a "new normal". Please know that I would do anything for your family. If you need to talk, cry, or just a hug we are there for all of you. We will continue to keep all of you in our thoughts and prayers. Love-The Gnatkowski's
