

Paul Edward Johnson

July 12, 1954 - October 6, 2025

Paul Edward Johnson of Brooklyn Center, MN, passed away on October 6, 2025.

The oldest son of Edward & Marion (Peterson) Johnson, Paul was born in Minneapolis in 1954. Brooklyn Center became home when Paul was a child, and it remained home for the rest of his life. He graduated from Robbinsdale High School and attended North Hennepin Community College.

Paul recently retired from a long career in the grain industry. He was a voracious reader and steady companion for his mother in her final years. Although he loved books, television was a favorite as well, and he was always quick with an appropriate quote from a (now-classic) sitcom.

He was also a life-long dedicated fan of Minnesota sports, and a great conversationalist (once you got him going).

Paul was a gentle soul who embodied the values his parents and church taught him: humility, kindness, honesty.

Paul is preceded in death by his parents and his brother Dean Johnson. He is survived by his brother Alan Johnson, his daughters, and their families.

Visitation will be held at Elim Lutheran Church in Robbinsdale, MN, on Thursday, October 30, 2025, at 9:15 a.m. The funeral service will be held at the same location at 10:00 a.m. Refreshments will be served at the church before proceeding to Hillside Cemetery in Minneapolis, MN, for the graveside service.

Casual and comfortable attire welcomed - just as Paul would want it.
Memorials may be directed to Second Harvest Heartland (www.2harvest.org) or the American Diabetes Association (www.diabetes.org).
