“ I remember how much I loved Paul just to leave me when baby was couple days old. He hot up and said he didn't want to be a husband or a father and called his dad to puck him up at 2 in the morning. I did stay by his side but went through hell. He said he did not want to be a dad or a husband and walked out the door. He never visited his son. He said he married me for a place to stay and go,that he didn't love me. I was young and gullible back in the day but have learned alot from this chaos. God Rest His Soul. AMBER
