

Paul Patrick Savage

July 18, 1921 - January 20, 2016

Age 94 of St. Paul

Passed away peacefully at the Minnesota Veteran's Home on January 20, 2016.

Born July 18, 1921 in Fort Dodge, Iowa.

He is survived by his wife Arla, daughter Anne Savage LeDuc (Gary), son Jim Savage (Laura), grandchildren Emily Gleason, Jacob LeDuc, Ellen LeDuc, and great grandchildren Grace Gleason, Violet Gleason, Logan Gleason, and Eve Gleason.

Paul lived a rich and fulfilling life that included many interests. He was active and respected Saint Paul community leader. He was instrumental in forming district councils, served with distinction in District 12, and completed seven 3-year terms on the Saint Paul Capital Improvement Budget Committee under five mayors. He was an early member and past president of the Saint Anthony Park Association and served as treasurer of the Block Nurse Program. He was a dedicated volunteer driver for the American Red Cross.

A proud World War II veteran, Paul served in the 98th Bomb Group in North Africa and Italy, and recounted his experiences in a memoir titled The Big One.

After graduating from the University of Iowa he began his career as a corporate executive and ultimately retired from Medtronic.

Paul was also known for his creative interests, which ranged from photography and fine woodworking, to his love of opera and foreign cars.

Beloved by many, Paul Savage was a source of joy to all who knew him, and will be missed. Memorial Service 11:00 AM Monday, Feb. 1st at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, 2136 Carter Ave., St. Paul.

Tribute Wall

SB

“ Im sorry that I'm not going to be able to make the services. Mr Savage was always cool and raised a fine family. My thoughts will be for your healing and rediscovering the value that life has to offer. Peace. Love. Respect. Kindness.

Scott Barrows - January 31, 2016 at 12:00 AM