

Paul Westerberg

August 14, 2002

Paul A. Westerberg, age 46, of Maple Grove, formerly Hopkins, died unexpectedly of heart failure August 12, 2002. Paul was a founding partner of S.T. Specialty Foods, Brooklyn Park. Paul enjoyed family time with his wife & two children, was an avid sportsman, and loved boating on Lake Minnetonka. He was preceded by father, Lauren; and brother, Steven. Paul will be deeply missed by his loving wife of 15 years, Beth; children, Jacob and Lauren; mother, Thelma of Minnetonka; brothers, John (Candice) of St. Petersburg, FL, Gary (Pam) of Wheaton, IL; nieces, nephews, family and friends. Funeral service Friday, 11 am at Lord of Life Lutheran, corner of Bass Lake Road & 101, Maple Grove. Visitation Thursday, 5-8 pm at Washburn-McReavy Strobeck Johnson, 1400 Main St, Hopkins, and 1 hour prior at church. Entombment at Lakewood Mausoleum. Memorials to Minneapolis Heart Institute or Lord of Life Church. Washburn-McReavy Strobeck Johnson 952-938-9020

Tribute Wall

SB

“ At the University of Wyoming, I roomed with “Elmo’s” older brother John. I got to know Paul when attended the University a few years later. A very good friend and one of the kindest, funniest, and most enjoyable people I have ever been around. When I think of Paul, he reminds me of Michael J. Fox. I was proud to have known him.

Sam Barnett.

Samuel Barnett - April 30, 2022 at 05:27 PM