

Paula Elaine Siewert

January 6, 1959 - May 24, 2014

Siewert, Paula E. of Robbinsdale, passed away peacefully May 24, 2014. Paula was born in Billings, MT on January 6, 1959 to Clarence and Marlene (Joki) Siewert. The family ranched in the Pryor Creek / Huntley, MT area. In 1965, the family moved to Red Lodge to live and dairy the farm Paula's great-grandparents homesteaded. Paula attended the same country school as her mother, Fox District 22, which was built by Paula's great-grandparents and other area farmers. In 1971, the family purchased a dairy farm outside of Chetek, WI, where Paula completed her primary and secondary education. She studied at the Minnesota School of Business to become a legal secretary. Paula held various legal secretarial jobs in Rice Lake and Eau Claire, WI; and the Minneapolis area. She then started working for Northwestern Lumber Association (NLA) in Minneapolis and was employed there for over 30 years. While at NLA, she earned a BA in Business Communication and Marketing from Metro State, which allowed her to grow in her career and eventually served as NLA's President. Paula enjoyed traveling, biking, running, in-line skating, and cross country skiing with friends and family. Paula was active in the churches she attended. The last, Harvest Bible Chapel, led her to serving on the board for In Love, Word & Deed, a homeless street ministry. Paula was preceded in death by her father, Clarence and survived by her mother, Marlene; brother, Mark; sisters, Bernetta and Margo. Paula was a beloved, faithful, servant of God. Visitation will be from 4 to 7 PM on Wednesday, May 28th. Funeral service will be Thursday, May 29th, 2 PM with visitation one hour prior at Washburn-McReavy, Glen Haven Chapel, 5125 West Broadway, Crystal, MN 55429.
