“ I was fortunate to meet Pete through work; however our relationship lasted far beyond those years and was one of great respect for each other. I remember at work making it a point to say "Good Morning Pete" as he slowly walked in just to get a reaction. Most times you would hear him say "What's so good about it?" or some days you might even get a one finger salute without him even turning around. He had a great sense of humor – quiet, sometimes dark, sometimes twisted but most times it made you think and always made me smile like I am now. We would keep in touch via email – Pete's were always one liners "meet this week? I am no good for Thursday – babysitting". A couple short replies from each of us and we were set. We would try to meet once a month for a pop or brew and just enjoyed sitting next to each other not saying much. When we did talk it was mostly complaining about this or that, well I guess it was about most everything - imagine that! :) But somehow when we left we both felt better for hearing of each other's issues old or new, real or not. And after catching up a little too we left looking forward to the next time we would meet. Pete would always listen and I will miss that.

Pete was one of a kind and will always be remembered by those of us that got to know him. He was a wonderful man, very intelligent, kind, warm hearted and thoughtful individual who loved his family and especially the grandkids. He was all of that and much more even though he might not have wanted to show it all the time.

My sympathies to the entire family – he will be missed.
