“ My dear Pete - it's been 3 and 1/2 years, and the pain is still just as big as the day you passed. I don't know how to put into words how much I miss you! We lost Mom a year ago - and my hope is that you both have found the peace you you deserved, and are in the arms of our loving God. Please stay close to me in my heart, as I know your there. I love you.

“ Dear Michele, In the few minutes I was in Pete's company and the few brief phone conversations we had, he impressed me as being quiet and sweet. But it was you, Michele, who brought Pete alive to me. Through you, I learned just how great a guy he was...humble, strong, committed, and very caring. I'm so glad he came into your life and made you so very happy. Every word out of your mouth about Pete was good and kind and positive. So he was also very, very blessed to have a wife who loved him as much as you did and still do. What an amazing testimony to loving through sickness and health...a real test of commitment in marriage. May God give you fullness and peace the rest of your days. Love, Vicki “Pete was a great brother-in-law. He showed my sister the meaning of TRUE LOVE. She misses him terribly.

I'm sorry you had to leave us/her in the manner that you did. But I can only pray that you are at peace now, and whatever life you did have here on earth, doesn't compare to the beauty and serenity you are living now.

Love, Renee (your favorite sister-in-law) ha-ha !!!

“ Pete was a loving, kind, and strong man. He had a heart bigger then Texas. There is not a day that goes by where we don't think about him. He will be missed.

“Pete's life was unlike most. But he perservered like no other. He found true love when he met my sister, Michele. They complimented each other, and found real happiness together. I wish Michele could have had more time with Pete, to understand how struggles can lead to rewards. I feel God needed to bring Pete home, so he wouldn't have to struggle anymore. Pete was a good soul...he always was...just didn't know it...or believed it !
He sure knows now.
Rest in peace my friend. I'll see you before too long...I'm sure.
