He served at Fort Bragg in NC and frequently regaled friends and family about his time there. Phil also had a great love of history, particularly the Old West, and he and his wife Evelyn lived for a time in Powell, WY to be close to so many icons of Western mythology and history. Phil attended Valley Presbyterian church in Golden Valley, MN and his faith meant a lot to him. Phil is survived by his son, Jon Hunt, Jon's wife Michelle, Phil's grandson Rowan Hunt, his grandchild Forest Hunt, his sister Susan Anderson, and his brother-in-law Darryl Anderson.
