

Phillip Gerald Wynn

February 10, 1953 - May 17, 2022

Doctor Phillip Gerald Wynn, Medieval historian, scholar, teacher, and author died unexpectedly at home. He was 69. He is survived by his wife of 40 years Pamela S. Wynn, beloved son Charles R. Wynn, brothers Gary (Gina) Wynn and Clay (Brenda) Wynn, sister Andrea Buchanan, nephews Chris Buchanan, Tim Wynn, Ian Wynn, and nieces Melissa Jones and Meredith Wynn. Phillip was preceded in death by mother Arnetta Amos Wynn, father Charles Griffith Wynn, and brother David Brickey Wynn. He enjoyed walking in the natural world, and in particular watching swans nesting in local lakes. He cared deeply about peace. It was the foundation of his worldview, his scholarship, writing, and teaching. Phillip was born in Knox County Tennessee. He had a BA in History from the University of Tennessee, MA in Medieval History from the University of Virginia, and MA and PhD in Medieval History from Notre Dame. Awarded a fellowship as a Fulbright scholar in residence at Ben Gurion University in Beersheva, Israel, he was able to further his research on "Just War" theory. Passionate about the future of our government, he was deeply engaged in Democratic Party politics. Phillip will be laid to rest in a private ceremony at Hillside Cemetery in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggest a donation to the Ukraine Emergency Appeal by the Ukraine Red Cross at <https://donate.redcrossredcrescent.org>.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Phil's passing. He was a great friend, and spoke about his family often, with much affection, telling us about Pam's operas and Charles's chess tournaments. He was always ready to lend a hand (or give a lift). Since we both left Notre Dame, I have missed his bottomless supply of “Dad jokes,” loyalty, and good humor.

I've joined in on sending a donation to the Red Cross: I wasn't able to figure out how to do it in Phil's name, but I know that's a cause that he would have appreciated.

My thoughts are with Pam and Charles at this difficult time.
