

Mrs. Phyllis Marie McClay

March 24, 1934 - January 11, 2019

McClay, Phyllis M. 84, passed away in peace on January 11, 2019 at the Annandale Care Center, in Annandale, MN, where she had resided for several years. Her courageous battle against dementia displayed her strength in life and she was an inspiration to her family. Phyllis was born to Cleve R. and Frieda Smith on March 24, 1934 of Annandale, MN. She graduated from Annandale High School where she was voted the funniest girl in her class. Her humor, dedication, work ethic and love for her customers resulted in many years of employment at the United States Postal Service and Philly's favorite job at Jack's Bakery in Brooklyn Park, MN. For many years Phyllis resided in Maple Grove, MN with her late husband Keith A. McClay. Together they enjoyed many years with wonderful neighbors, family and friends. Phyllis also resided in the Minneapolis, MN area (Gordon G. Ash) and in Brooklyn Center, MN (Harold W. Lampi). Phyllis is lovingly survived by her children, Susan (Phil) Berwyn, Scott Lampi, Sherlynn Pryor, and Kristen Bullard; daughter in law Kathryn Lampi; stepchildren, David (Marta) McClay, Tim (Karen) McClay, Dan (Heidi) McClay, Sheri (Dan) Ciatti; brother Marvin (Nona) Smith; sister Lorraine (Joe) Malmgren; and her many grandchildren and great grandchildren. Phyllis was preceded in death by her husband Keith A. McClay, parents Cleve R. and Frieda Smith, brothers Millard R. and Donald C. Smith and her son, Steven H. Lampi.
