

Phyllis Newstrom

September 13, 2009

Newstrom, Phyllis Maxine of Hopkins, passed away on September 9, 2009 peacefully at home at the age of 86. She was surrounded by her loving family and caregivers and is now in the Lord's hands in heaven with her husband of 65 years. Up until her diagnosis of dementia, she loved to cook, garden, and spend time with her family camping. She was a Sunday school teacher, den mother and Girl Scout leader. She took much pride in her home and the things in it to make it comfortable for her family. She was a big fan of Frank Sinatra and owns almost all of his music, which she thoroughly enjoyed listening to in her last years and would sing all of the words. Always a lady, always kind, always loving and loved to hold hands and receive kisses! She was preceded in death by parents, Alfred O. and Ida V. Olson and husband, Frank Newstrom. She leaves behind son, Ron; daughters, Nancy and Cherie; grandson, Jason (Kia) Bihl; great-grandson, Teegan; many friends and relatives. A gathering of family & friends will be held Monday September 14, 2009 at 3 p.m. followed by a memorial service at 4 p.m: Washburn-McReavy Strobeck Johnson Chapel 1400 Mainstreet, Hopkins 952 938-9020
