A special thank you to mom and dad's "angel", Jan, who has helped so much these past years! Our mom loved entertaining neighbors, all the needle arts (lots of afghans in our homes), cooking, gardening, her family, and friends. She was involved in garden clubs, home maker clubs, bridge clubs, annual Christmas cookie bakes at church, and others. She will be remembered for her great pies and awesome potato salad. She liked reading obituaries in the newspaper, set a tradition of having popcorn and coke on Sunday nights we still do it to this day, and always enjoyed a good margarita. Phyllis and Barbara spent many family reunion summers at the lake (47 yrs) making sure all the boats came in safely, getting the final fish count, and frying the best fish ever! She always let her husband shine and was a good disciplinarian: "get your work done first, then play!" Regarding her loyalty, she stayed with the same hairdresser, Char, for over 50 years; Char's entire career! She worked at

Business Incentives, went to Oak Grove Presbyterian Church and will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her. A memorial service will be held at a later date at their church and Fort Snelling National Cemetery. Washburn-McReavy.com Dawn Valley Chapel 952-941-7686
