“ I am still consumed with thoughts of you. Every minute of every day. Sometimes still not believing you are gone. Wanting to call and check on how you are doing. Do you need anything or just to talk to me? Feeling a lot of guilt for not helping you have a better lifestyle. You chose to go live with and help your Dad, but I feel bad that I resented your choice. I want to remember the good times. Any and all good times we had in your short lifetime. I know you are now in a safe and loving place, but I will always,always, in my heart never let you go.

“ Although I would normally call myself a writer, I can find no words of my own to express my feelings on the untimely passing of Quinnie.

So, I share the Lyrics to the song by Steven Curtis Chapman, "With Hope", based on scripture from: I Thessalonians 4:13-14; Hebrews 6:9, 10:23

*That is not at all how we thought it was supposed to be We had so many plans for you we had so many dreams
And now you've gone away and left us with the memories of your smile And nothing we can say and nothing we can do Can take away the pain
the pain of losing you*

*We can cry with hope we can say goodbye with hope
'Cause we know our goodbye is not the end
We can grieve with hope because we believe with hope
There's a place where we'll see your face again
We'll see your face again*

*Never have I known anything so hard to understand Never have I questioned more the wisdom of God's plan
But through the cloud of tears
I see the Father smile and say well done
And I imagine you where you wanted most to be Seeing all your dreams come true
'Cause now you're home and now you're free*

We have this hope like as an anchor 'Cause we believe that everything God promised us is true

*So we can cry with hope, we can say goodbye with hope
'Cause we know our goodbye is not the end
We can grieve with hope, because we believe with hope There's a place
By God's grace
There's a place where we'll see your face again*

I have a picture in my heart of Quinn laughing and dancing and singing with her grandma Clara, even though they never met here on earth. :-)
