“ How I miss our "board meetings" in your Hickory Marsh Lane garage with the male friends, discussing all the latest news; And the early rounds of social golf and then later walks in the neighborhood. "Thanks for the memories!" Bob Neuser

“ Our sympathy to the Greer family. Dale was a great neighbor and Minnesota friend. Many hours were spent critiquing the Vikings game after brunch on Sunday's, followed by frequent visits at his home during the week covering all the vital world issues of the day,... plus sharing many mutual medical concerns. I'm glad I had the opportunity to join him for lunch last October while visiting our family in Eden Prairie. He will be missed.
Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ So sorry to hear of Dale's passing. I made friends with Dale during his stay on our street at Olde Hickory. I remember Dale holding court most days in his garage where some of the neighborhood men would gather and settle all of the world's problems. He was a great guy. Our condolences to the family.
