

Ralph H. Bahr

October 10, 1927 - September 18, 2010

Beloved Husband and Father. Age 82 of Shoreview On Sept. 18, 2010. Preceded in death by parents Harry and Otilie Bahr and grandparents. Survived by wife of 55 years Joyce (nee Wallblom) Bahr and son Alan (Sandra). Graduate of Central High School, St. Paul class of 1945. Drafted into the Army, he served in the Philippines. After returning home he worked at Brown & Bigelow and then long time employee of Minneapolis Star Tribune as a printer, composer and in Human Resources before retiring in the late 70's. Ralph served as a loaned executive with Minneapolis Star Tribune for several years for United Way and other local charities. In his retirement Ralph enjoyed traveling with friends from church, helping out many years with Habitat for Humanity through Holy Hammers and as an active member with his local Kiwanis Group. Ralph loved visiting with his neighbors and spending time volunteering to help others. Funeral service Friday 11:00 AM (visitation 10-11) at INCARNATION LUTHERAN CHURCH; 4880 Hodgson Rd, Shoreview. Interment Elmhurst Cemetery. Visitation Thursday 4-8 PM at HOLCOMB-HENRY-BOOM-PURCELL FUNERAL HOME; 515 W. Hwy 96, Shoreview. Memorials preferred to Incarnation Lutheran Church. Family would like to extend a special thanks to Ralph's caregivers at the Benedictine Heath Center at Innsbruck.

Tribute Wall

SK

“ Ralph H. Bahr

Sue Korkowski - September 19, 2010 at 12:00 AM

SK

“ Joyce, Al and Sandi, We are so sorry for your loss. We loved Ralph like a grandpa to the kids. We will miss him. Know that our thoughts and prayers are with all of you! Love you all! Nurse Sue, Ron, Mason, Grace and Jacob.

Sue Korkowski - September 19, 2010 at 12:00 AM