“ Ann and Lyndon wish to express our deepest sympathy to Judy and her family. While we were neighbors and friends all of the years that Ralph and Judy lived in Pine City, that friendship continued for several years after they left Pine City.

Tonight as we ate supper, Ann asked the question of where Judy and Ralph might be. Even though we despise the computer, it did help us find the obituary for Ralph. We appreciate the years of friendship, and we will indeed miss him. Our thought and prayers to Judy and family.

“ In my 80's and the oldest of Uncle Ralph's living Nieces and Nephews, I knew him well...

He was always kind, caring, loving, supportive and, encouraging. He and G-ma lived right across the alleyway and spent a lot of time at our house, and it wasn't at all unusual for him to be carrying his Bible, as he enjoyed reading the scriptures and sharing God's word. I will continue to always have many fond memories; including the day he gave me away at my wedding nearly 63 years ago...

Uncle Ralph has touched many hearts at home and abroad while serving in the Ministry. He was a devoted Christian.

God Bless his Memory. AMEN.
