

Ralph Waldemar Jensen

August 21, 2016

Jensen, Ralph Waldemar 83, went to heaven on August 21, 2016, joining his parents Peter and Irene, sister Juanita, brother Roger, and grandchildren Alexander and Alyssa. He is survived by Mary, his loving wife of 60 years; children Stuart (Paula), Susan, David (Sarah); grandchildren Jessica, Rachel, Aminta, Jordan (April), Rebekah, Emily and Brian; sister Louise (Myrl) Peterson; many nieces and nephews and other family and friends. Born on October 16, 1932 in Albert Lea, MN, Ralph served with the U.S. Marine Corps during the Korean Conflict. He met and married the love of his life, Mary, at First Baptist Church in Minneapolis, where they raised their family and volunteered in many capacities. After a long career with Remington Rand/Unisys, Ralph's retirement was full of missions trips, BWCA canoeing, bicycling, and time with family and friends around the world. His active faith in Jesus Christ is a comfort and strength to all who knew him. Memorial service is on Sunday, Sept 4 at 1:30pm at First Baptist Church, 1021 Hennepin Ave, Mpls, MN. Interment on Tues, Sept 6 at 10:00am at Fort Snelling National Cemetery. Memorials preferred to First Baptist Church. Washburn-McReavy.com Glen Haven Chapel 763-533-8643
