“ I met Randy in 2004 in Bethel, Mn. We instantly became (BFFs) What a wonderful friend i had in Randy. we both have the same crazy humor. we would laugh our entire visit. I was lucky enough to meet his family. Kayla, kara(sp.) you will remember me as the "crazy lady" the one that would keep you in dollars for the games at the dugout. It was cool watching you 2 grow remember the GOTH look? Randys mom and dad youll remember me from our bingo games and some of your family parties. I was the one girl that didnt date Randy. Hannah i met you at a birthday party at rum river inn. Randy had borrowed me your old phone, I had lost mine. I got the strangest message on it from the police dept. saying that i better contact them rightaway and that i had 24 hrs. to bring the kid back or there would be kiddknapping charges. i thought thanks for the phone randy. Remember i saved the mesasage to show you at the rum? I did call the station they were looking for a korean man. so, Hannah were off the hook on that one. I just talked to Randy recently we were planning his next visit he was gonna stay a month in february we were really looking forward to it. The last time we saw Randy last january he had run away and joined the the carnival. He thought it was going to be so much more of glamorous lifestyle than it acually was. So we went and picked him up in tampa florida. He stayed about a 11/2 months. We laughed everyday. My husband Ron & Randy were getting such a good bond also, that I was worried about a bromance happening, LOL. I could go on forever of all the fun we had. I just like to say how much Randy meant to me, and I know how much you all meant to him. He will be missed so much, but never forgotten. My thoughts are with you all. Prayers for Randy. May you be in heaven a half hour before the devil knows yours your dead. Love you Randy We will laugh again (hopefully not right away) But I know we will R.I.P. Love you!

“ Randy was a wonderful person. He always made me laugh. We had dated for awhile. But he was like a big brother to me, if I was in trouble he was there. He protected me which I looked up to him for that. He had gotten into a fight over me. Never had any guy do that before. What a man. And when he needed anything I was there for him. What a sweetheart. You will be dearly missed pal. love you.
