Ray will always be remembered by his family and many close friends as someone who helped others. He would go out of his way to be of assistance, and often did so, without anyone knowing.

In addition to owning his own business (Black Bear Enterprises), for over thirty years, Ray also loved spending time at the cabin. Throughout the years he enjoyed hunting, fishing, four-wheeling and boating. He had many friends at the cabin and often spent time around a bon fire sharing stories.

As kids, the Pearson cousins spent time at the cabin, and there was always a lot of laughter.

Ray never missed the annual Nelson Reunion (as well as all the celebrations) with all of his cousins that he loved so much.

Ray was a lifetime member of Gethsemane Church and enjoyed seeing his church friends on Sundays and at lunch (when he was in town). Ray had a strong faith and would mention that he knew he would see his parents and his brother, Roy again.

Ray will be greatly missed.

I was at the gravesite and it was a beautiful memorial service. I just watched it and you couldn't hear a word that Jill was saying it was really choppy
