

Raymond J. Agustin

September 17, 2015

Agustin, Raymond J. Born March 2, 1950, Ray passed away on September 17, 2015. Preceded in death by mother Doris Agustin, father Urbano Agustin, sister Sherill Closner and niece Tina Closner. Ray is survived by siblings Patricia Ellis, Douglas, Janet, Connie (Don) Larson, Carlos, Sandra, and numerous nieces and nephews. Ray was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota, the fourth child of Urbano S. Agustin and Doris (Haines) Agustin. He attended Corcoran Elementary, Folwell Jr. High and South High Schools. He enlisted voluntarily in the US Army in 1967 during the Vietnam war. He had a love of photography, animals, antiques, old films and silly cartoons, and had an extensive collection of artfully crafted pocket knives and jewelry. His favorite watering hole was in South Minneapolis where he appeared to be the Cheers "Norm" at Blue Moon Cafe. Memorial service Wednesday September 23, 2015 at 7:00 PM-Washburn McReavy, 1827 Coon Rapids Blvd. N.W., Coon Rapids. In lieu of flowers, memorials to Minneapolis V.A. Voluntary Services or diabetes.org appreciated.