“ Hi Joe & Teresa,

I wanted to send you a note to express how sad I am about the news of your dad. Unfortunately there are just no good words that can properly convey the sadness a person feels when they lose someone they love. You can however trust in knowing that there are many people out there that care for you and share in how much you miss him. Please accept our heartfelt sympathies.

With love from Chris, Lenore, Ryan, and Meghan O'Meara

“ Dear Fern, Neil and Joe and family,

My prayers and sympathies during this time. It was a treasured and gifted time that I had with Ray and Fern in January before moving to Rome.

Both drove me to the airport when I left Minneapolis on January 16th. A few days before I had a wonderful visit at your home with blueberry pie and coffee. Nice conversation and hospitality. (Plus my visa was expressed to your home.)

Ray through the years I have known him has always be gracious and kind. Always willing to help and have a listening year. Will always remember his faithful presence at the Crosier Province Office and generosity.

May he Glory in the Cross of Lord Jesus Christ.
