“ I think about Raymond often. As a child, at my grandmother's Bar, he was part of our family. I will never forget his kindness to me as a young child and the gift of the beautiful pale pink multi-layered nightie with Peignoir. What a lovely gift that I wore until I tore the arms out because I grew! He had such a lovely eye for style and my mother was always so happy to see him to chat in their elder years. Will always hold him close to my heart teaching me to accept everyone for who they were.
