“ My dad and your dad were firemen at station 6. My dad-Robert Rylander-used to bring me there -I was 3 or 4. I told Ray to get his hairy arms off the table I was little and have better manners now! Clayton Ford always told that story! Ray always shared a bottle of soda with me. My dad passed in 1987. I'm happy you had so many more years with yours! My sincere sympathy.

“ Steven, Mark, Nancy & Tom, I am so sorry for your loss. Your Dad was a very special person and I was very lucky to have him as my “Godfather”. Our world will be a little less bright without his smile. To help ease your sadness hold on to all the many memories you have made as a family in the years you all had together. Take care. “ The fire service of today is ever changing, but is steeped in traditions 200 years old. One such tradition is the sound of a bell. In the past, as fire fighters began their tour of duty, it was the bell that signaled the beginning of that day's shift. Throughout the day and night, each alarm was sounded by a bell, which summoned these brave souls to fight fires and to place their lives in jeopardy for the good of their fellow citizen. And when the fire was out and the alarm had come to an end, it was the bell that signaled to all the completion of that call. When a fire fighter had died in the line of duty, paying the supreme sacrifice, it was the mournful toll of the bell that solemnly announced a comrade's passing. We utilize these traditions as symbols, which reflect honor and respect on those who have given so much and who have served so well. To symbolize the devotion that these brave souls had for their duty, a special signal of three rings, three times each, represents the end of our comrades' duties and that they will be returning to quarters. And so, to those who have selflessly devoted their lives for the good of their fellow man, their tasks completed, their duties well done, to our comrades, their last alarm, they are going home. FIRE FIGHTER'S PRAYER
When I am called to duty, God Wherever flames may rage Give me strength to save a life Whatever be its age. Let me embrace a little child Before it is too late Or save an older person from The horror of that fate. Enable me to be alert And hear the weakest shout, and quickly and efficiently To put the fire out. I want to fill my calling To give the best in me, To guard my friend and neighbor And protect their property. And, if, according to your will, While on duty I must answer death's call; Bless with your protecting hand My family, one and all.

“ Luniewski Family, my deepest sympathies on your fathers passing. I lived across the street from your parents in Fridley. I was always at their house & with your dad would always take me to some of the fires they had, the day after. I have wonderful memories of your dad & am grateful that he led me to my career as a fireman here in Las Vegas. I am forever blessed to have had your father as a mentor of sorts & I think about his advice, wisdom & laughter often. Rest in peace Chief...FF David Pawlyshyn IAFF L1883
