

Raymond Edward Miller

May 12, 1925 - December 2, 2018

Miller, Ray Affectionately known as "Joe" throughout his long life passed away peacefully at Bloomington's Friendship Village on Sunday, December 2, at the age of 93. Ray was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 60 years, Betty, in 2006. He is survived by his four devoted children, Wayne (Holly Thorvig), Iris Kiedrowski (Jay), Dawn Hoy (Brian), and Glenn (Jocey Hale), eight grandchildren, and 13 great-grandchildren. During their 60 years of marriage, Ray and Betty lived throughout the United States, but their favorite home was in Edina, where they settled with their four children for 22 years. Ray had a highly-successful career in sales and marketing with American Standard and Alsons Corp. Ray's success in business and life was due to his wonderful sense of humor, his ever-present charm, and his quest for fun. Ray grew up in Muskegon, MI, joined the Navy in 1943 following his high school graduation, and was the starting center at Northwestern University, before beginning his professional sales career. Throughout his life, Ray loved and excelled in competition of all sorts tennis, golf, handball, bridge, and cribbage. He was the first to start a water fight and the last to leave a party. A celebration of this wonderful life will take place at the Washburn McReavy Chapel in Edina on Friday, December 7, at 2:00 pm; visitation begins at 1:00 pm. The family would like to thank the nurses, aides, and hospice workers of Friendship Village for their kind and devoted care. In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may be sent to the Edina Public Library or the Minnesota Landscape Arboretum.
