Ray Miller

Feb 26, 1960 - Feb 3, 2025

Ray was a simple man who lived a simple life, and that was exactly how he wanted it. He found joy in the open road, riding his Harley with the wind at his back. A game of cards, a good laugh, and time spent with family were among his favorite things.

Ray was rarely seen without his signature look; flannel, Levi's, and his well-polished boots. But beyond his style, what truly defined him was his love for his family, especially his grandchildren, whom he cherished deeply.

Ray leaves behind his daughter Kandace (Alan) and son Travis; grandchildren, Alivia, Weston, and Huxley; sisters, Rose (Dave), Dorothy (Bob), Joyce, and Barb; and many nieces and nephews who will forever hold his memory close.

He is now reunited with those who passed before him, his wife, Bekki; his parents, Leonard and Virginia; his brother, Donald; and his nephew, Robbie.

A celebration of Ray's life will be held on Monday, February 10th, at 11 AM with visitation starting at 10 AM at Washburn-McReavy, 1827 Coon Rapids Blvd, Coon Rapids. Lunch will follow at the Anoka Legion after the burial at Forest Hill Cemetery in Anoka.

He lived simply, loved deeply, and will be missed beyond measure. Ride on,
Dad (Ray).

“ I always enjoyed the meals and holidays we spent with Ray, and the general conversations we had if I came over. And I appreciated the articles he would text me on Lyme disease, and the Wordle tips (he was very good at this and pretty proud of it)! I felt he was a good friend and will truly miss him.

“ I met Ray at Wiggle Inn where he was giving me tips on learning to play pool.

A memory from close to 40 years ago. I lived in the same apartment complex as Bekki and Ray. We spent a lot of time together. Ray and I were visiting one day when Robbie who was maybe 2 started to choke on some food and I just panicked and looked at Ray and said” “Ray!!!” He calmly picked Robbie up and turned him upside down against his body and patted his back. Dislodging the food, like it was nothing, no big deal, I was so terrified. I was so appreciative of his calm level head at that very moment, but I believe that was probably a lifelong character trait of Ray’s.

Just a week ago I learned things about him that I never knew. He was sharing the sports he played in school. Football, tennis and basketball.

Ray’s easy going personality made it so easy to have a conversation with him. I will miss him. See you in a blink of an eye Ray. ❤️

“ I used to sit by his door for hours, and we would talk about the most random things, my little dog Oliver loved Grandpa Ray. He would demand we let him in his room for some good ol' grandpa time. I remember Grandpa and I went off to McDonald's once to get a hot fudge Sunday. He loved those. I will miss him, and Oliver will too.

“ I found Ray to be very kind, caring and selfless as I got to know him better the last few years. He sure loved his daughter and the whole family and those grandkids. It was great to talk to him, often about simple things like the Vikings and playing Wordle. I will miss him.

“ Ray was always kind and sweet. Ray, Dell and Marty all worked together 40 years ago. They loved sharing the stories from way back. Ray came to Dell's alive celebration and Retirement party in September 2022, it was sweet for him to make it with his son Travis and they all had a super visit. We went and seen Ray this past Saturday February 1st, so glad we did. It was nice to meet his sister and see kandace, Al, Travis and the grandkids. Rest easy Ray, with love Becky and Marty
