“ Ray put up a very valiant and courageous fight against cancer the past 4 years or so but the battle was just too much for him. What I'll always remember is Rays' positive attitude throughout his ordeal in his battle against this terrible disease. His attitude and disposition throughout was unbelievable and which, although of small comfort, is something his family should always be very proud of. I sincerely couldn't have asked for any better father-in-law and grandfather to our 3 daughters, who Ray treated like gold. Ray will be missed by family and friends alike but never forgotten, I'm sure. RIP Ray. Your beloved son-in-law, Graham

“ *May Peace reign in your hearts and know that Ray can do more for your family than he could ever do even in good health on earth. Use your husband and father. He can beseech Our Lady's help and that of Jesus for you. May he now make a difference for all of you. Fr. Thomas

“ Dear Wahlgren Family :

We are shocked and saddened by the sudden and untimely demise of Ray and find it hard to convey our sorrow in words. But we share in your grief and feelings.

In our culture, death is merely a transient stage before acquiring a new life form by the departed soul, yet it is very hard for the family, relatives and friends to accept these circumstances. Time is the best and only healer.

We shall always cherish Ray in our hearts and memories and our good times at your home in Canoga Park.

With our love and condolences.
