

Reath Ruei

May 25, 2002 - April 30, 2021

A Celebration life of Reath Pal Ruei

Reath P. Ruei was born on May 25th, 2002 in Northfield, Minnesota to Pal Ruei and Nyakate Tot

He entered the Kingdom of God on April 29th, 2021

Reath was a twin, sometimes he referred in Nuer as Duoth which mean the 2nd twin.

Their childhood was very positive and they enjoyed being twins. They did everything together, although Reath was incredibly a book smart, their good attitude and likable personality both of them loved playing basketball, football, video games and many other hobbies.

Reath congratulated from Coon Rapids High School in 2020 where he attended college in Houston, Texas. He plays AU basketball for various of clubs in Coon Rapids.

Reath was a responsible young man at a very young age. He had several part-time jobs through his high school. He also worked for the city of Coon Rapids Center with his mother. Reath enjoys traveling, going to church camps, family vacations and etc.

In his short life, Reath learned a lot about the importance of giving back. On his pay days, Reath would come home after work with goodies, snacks and variety of stuffs for all his siblings and cousins.

His joyous laughter, especially when him and his twin brother were exhorting one another about God.

Though he left this world far too soon, he left this world a better place.

Reath survived by his parents, grandparents, siblings, aunts and uncles, cousins, friends and other relatives.

He will be truly missed but is now a gift to heaven.
