

Regina Gail Beasy Hoffman

July 8, 1949 - February 23, 2024

Regina, affectionately known as Gina, peacefully departed to Our Almighty Lord on February 23, 2024, at 11:40 am. Born on July 8, 1949, to Aileen and Peter Joseph Beasy in Hibbing, MN, Gina left an indelible mark as a caring, compassionate, and generous soul, touching the lives of everyone fortunate enough to know her.

A revered Master's Degree Elementary school teacher in Bloomington School District for over 35 years, Gina imparted foundational skills, guidance, and exceptional education to countless future scholars. As a devoted mother, she cherished her two daughters, Hallie and Sara. Her role as "Grandma Gigi" brought immeasurable joy, and she took immense pride in her grandsons, Grady (16) and Gavin (15).

Gina is survived by her daughter, Hallie (Michael) Messner; and grandsons, Grady and Gavin Messner, all of Palm City, Florida. She is also survived by her daughter, Sara (Daniel) Knutson; sisters, Mary Lindsey, Sheila (Ralph) Kosek, and Priscilla (Lou) Sondergaard; long time significant other, Allen Schmidt; and many nieces and nephews, all of Minnesota.

Radiating kindness to all, Gina's spirit will forever live in the hearts of those who loved and adored her. Her impact as a beautiful person and soul will be dearly missed.

Services to celebrate Gina's life will be held on Friday, March 29, 2024, at Dawn Valley Funeral Chapel and Memorial Park, 9940 Bush Lake Road, Bloomington, MN 55438. Visitation will commence at 12:00 pm, followed by the memorial service at 1:00 pm, then concluding with the graveside service. For further details, please contact (952) 941-7686.

During this challenging time, may the memories of Gina's warmth and benevolence bring solace and comfort to all those mourning her loss.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made "In memory of Regina Hoffman" sent to Mount Olive Lutheran Church, 5218 Bartlett Blvd Mound, MN 55364.
