“ Hi momIts been awhile since Ive written. Ash did have her baby on Jan 7th lol funny huh? He was having complications but hes out of the woods now they are just waiting for his breathing to slow down a little bit and then he will be released. Hes so adorable. Trina is doing good so knows how to write now. She says that she talks to you and that you smile at her and talk back. I will ask her what you say but she says that its a secret. I got a tat in your honor. Its a rose with an old scroll and on the scroll says mom. Ash got the same one. They are really cool I get complimented on it a lot. Not a day goes by that I dont think about you and the good times that we had.I Love You Mom I always have and I always willLove Tia sorry i didn't write right away. to be honest it still hasn't hit me that your gone. wow when i look back through the memories we had some great times. we each missed out on eachothers life and i wish that it was never like that. little bina sits and points up to the sky and says that your smiling at her and singing her lullibies its very cute. i just wish that i would have been able to say that i was sorry, for everything that i ever did to hurt you. i love you mom i always have and i always will. right now we are apart, but one day we will meet up with eachother again, until that time i will forever hold the memories that we shared in my heart, when the sun rises i will be reminded of you and how many pots of coffee you went through before i even got out of bed, when the wind blows i will be reminded of you strolling along your little nascar scooter beeping at everyone to get out of your way, when the sun goes down i will be reminded of how many times we would stay up for hours talking on the phone about nothing at all. im really gonna miss all the good times that we had. i love you mom there will never be a day that goes by that i dont think of you.
