“ I will always remember Aunt Reta fondly as "the relative you wanted to set next to at large family events"....bubbly. She was so considerate when she took the time to visit me at The Mayo Clinic in Rochester, even when her leg was injured. I loved my aunt and she will be missed ~

“ I have fond memories of gathered at the MO “farm” with our children for love, laughs and fellowship. Reta was cheerful, full of life, fun to be around, hard worker and trustworthy. I will always treasure those times. But most of all, she was a sterling example of the Proverb 31 wife and mother.

Love,
Pam
