“ Rex and I were good friends all the way through graduation from Burnsville. Unfortunately, we never got together after that but did have a few long phone conversations, usually around class reunion time. Always enjoyed talking about how tall Rex was in the sixth grade. I think about 6'6" and taller than all the teachers. We expected that by the time he was in high school he would be even taller and a star basketball player. Well, he was still the same height when we graduated and never attained "star status" on the basketball court. But he was a great guy, very modest, good sense of humor, and I'm sad to think I won't ever get the chance to talk to him again.
