“ Dear Dad Well the house is sold and soon I will be out of Waterville. Now what? I am going to check out New Mexico. All I need is a spot with fishing and a full bathroom. Don't think I can go back to Mpls for any length of time. For the first time in awhile, I feel like an outsider. Wish you were here so vey much. I sit in your chair every day and try to find strength but this time I am just wiped out. I hope you know how much I loved you.

“ Dearest Papa, I constantly think of you and miss you lots. At Christmastime your presence was felt. I was driving and Cab Calloway's "Hi De Hi De Ho" came on and brought tears. Then 15 min. later "Godzilla" came on and brought smiles. Then on Dec.25th Kurt's sister played me a song "Ice Cream" on her IPOD, it brought laughter. I know you're OK. Love, Daughter #4 Laurie Lou “ Grandpa, We both miss you. Thanks for the wonderful times you took me to your store and let go through stacks and stacks of comics (and the occasional "other" mags). Becky feels blessed she was able to spend that week with you and enjoy your stories and humor.

We love you always and cherish the many memories of you.
