

Rhonda L. Peek

November 20, 2012

CHAMPLIN, Minn. - Rhonda Webb Peek, 56, Champlin, Minn., won her battle with ovarian cancer on Tuesday, Nov. 20, 2012.

Rhonda, who was born April 21, 1956, loved to travel and did so extensively before her diagnosis in March 2011. She was a member of Northern Light Church of Christ, Brooklyn Park, Minn. She also taught a women's Bible study class through Bible Study Fellowship International. She loved her family very much and always enjoyed visits with them and friends. She also loved to read. Rhonda is the daughter of Ancel and Fayettea Webb, rural Bellevue. She is also survived by her husband, Horace E. Peek; two daughters, Kelly (Eddie) Schmitz and Regan (Mark) Granger; one son and future daughter-in-law, Tyler E. Peek and Jamie Lind; three grandsons, Owen, Myer and Oliver Schmitz, all of Champlin, Minn.; one sister, Veronica "Vicky" Webb Farrar, Bellevue; and one brother, David Webb, Fairview Park, Ohio.

A celebration of life was held on Nov. 24, 2012, at Northern Light Church of Christ, Brooklyn Park, Minn.

Memorial contributions may be made to Bible Study Fellowship International, 19007 Huebner Rd., San Antonio, TX 78258; the Ovarian Cancer National Alliance, 901 E. St. NW, Suite 405, Washington, D.C. 20004; or locally to the 5K for Patty, 206 Elm St., Bellevue, OH 44811. Please be sure to mention Rhonda Webb Peek in your donation.

“ My thoughts are with your family at this time. I feel so lucky to have known Rhonda. She was always friendly, warm and so much fun. It was always such a pleasure to see her - even if it was only for a few minutes. I hope you will all find comfort and peace in the coming days.
