

Ricardo Soto

November 26, 1938 - September 30, 2021

Ricardo Soto, was 82 , a biologist born and raised in Lima , Peru. He moved to Minnesota in 1999 and later became a proud American citizen at 65 years of age. He lived in Eden Prairie for 22 years, close to his daughter and youngest son. He also traveled to Lima frequently to visit his other children. His whole family finally moved to Minnesota in 2018, creating his new legacy along his 5 children and 8 grandkids in Minnesota. He is survived by his 6 children: Vicky, Marie (Teddy), Tatiana, Pamela, Sandra, Ricardo, Jr., and 11 grandkids: Paola (Arturo), Ani (David), Melissa, Diego, Alejandra, Sandra, Gonzalo, Ryan, Alonso, Giancarlo, and Fernanda. He enjoyed gatherings with his family, meeting new people, supporting his Peruvian National Soccer team, Formula 1, boxing, singing, and old western movies. His old time favorite show was The Little House on the Prairie, fulfilling his life-long dream to visit Walnut Grove in 2017.
