He was born August 25, 1933, at Graylin Heights, in Northeast Colorado, the son of Dale and Crystal (Gillett) Borth. He grew up in Sterling, Colorado, with a sister, Jewel, and two brothers, Vernon and David. In 1956, he married Lois Schrieber.

He graduated from Moody Bible Institute (Chicago), Wheaton College (Wheaton, IL), and Northern Baptist Theological Seminary (at that time, in Chicago). Richard will be remembered by his family as a kind, caring, compassionate, gentle and godly man. He was a humble soft-spoken father and grandfather. His life reflected the fruit of the Spirit found in Galatians 5:22-23 as he lived out his faith with his actions. In his later years he enjoyed time with family, reading and singing familiar hymns. He found pleasure in the beauty of God's creation. He will be missed by his children, Deborah (Richard) Mach of Woodbury, Minnesota; Daniel (Jeannie) of Ironwood, Michigan; Rebecca (Larry) James of Laramie, Wyoming and Mark (Candace) of Normal, Illinois, 19 grandchildren and 33 great-grandchildren.
